PRESS RELEASE

Releasing Officer: Chief Fabian Lizarraga
Report Number: FG1800686
Date / Time Incident: May 19th and May 17th 2018
Location of Incident: Area of Pudding Creek Beach and Residence in Fort Bragg
Crime or Incident: 261(a)PC Rape, 286(a)PC Sodomy, 261.5(d)PC Unlawful Sexual Intercourse with a Minor
Victim: Confidential
Suspect: Suspect 1: Daniel Alonso, 35 years of age
Suspect 2: Male Juvenile, 15 years of age

CIRCUMSTANCES:

On May 19th, 2018 Officers from the Fort Bragg Police Department responded to a report of a missing Juvenile. A report was completed and follow-ups were conducted to locate the missing juvenile. On May 20th, the Missing Juvenile's Father reported that the juvenile was located. Officers responded to confirm the juvenile was safe and there were no issues. Officers learned that the juvenile had reported being raped by a male friend of hers, also a minor. This incident occurred on May 19th. That juvenile suspect was identified by name. During the course of the investigation, the victim disclosed that on May 17th, a relative of the juvenile suspect also had sex with her at his residence. That relative is an adult, identified as Daniel Alonso, 35 years old, of Fort Bragg. The investigation continued and "Ramey" arrest warrants were secured for both suspects. A search for the suspects began and ended with the arrest of both suspects on May 22nd. The case has been forwarded to the Mendocino County DA's Office for prosecution.
