CIRCUMSTANCES:

On February 26, 2020 at 8:00a.m. Fort Bragg Police Officers were detailed to a person slumped over on the bench at the end of the 800 Block of East Laurel Street. The caller was a concerned person who works in the area.

Fort Bragg Police Officers responded and found an adult male with obvious signs of death. Officers, in their preliminary investigation, do not suspect foul play concerning this death.

The Mendocino County Sheriff's-Coroner was requested and responded to the scene. The Sheriff's Office takes control of the investigation since this does appear to be an unattended death. The Sheriff will notify the next of kin.

Fort Bragg Police Department has no further information about this case and is referring all questions to the Sheriff/Coroner.
