PRESS RELEASE

Releasing Officer: Sergeant Jonathan A. McLaughlin

Date: September 14, 2015

Announcement: Neighborhood Watch Meeting

INFORMATION:

On September 24th, 2015 at 5:30 P.M., the Fort Bragg Police Department is inviting anyone interested in becoming involved in Neighborhood Watch to join us for a meeting in the conference room at the Fort Bragg Police Department.

Any community member can join Neighborhood Watch and learn how to make their home more secure, watch out for each other and the neighborhood, and report suspicious activities to law enforcement. Neighborhood Watch doesn't have to be limited to a few houses. It can encompass a block, an apartment complex, or even a business area.

Neighborhood Watch is an effective way to prevent crime and reduce fear in your neighborhood. It creates bonds with your neighbors and improves relations between law enforcement and the community. It helps reduce burglaries, robberies, prowlers, and many other types of crimes.

This meeting will allow community members interested in Neighborhood Watch to meet and get to know each other. We will provide information on how to start your own Neighborhood Watch group and become involved in the program. Police Chief Fabian Lizarraga will be in attendance as well, so please come and meet him.

Anyone with questions is asked to contact Sergeant Jonathan McLaughlin with the Fort Bragg Police Department. 707-961-2800 Ext. 117.
