PRESS RELEASE

Releasing Officer: Sergeant Jonathan A. McLaughlin
Date: November 13, 2015
Location: Fort Bragg, CA
Incident: Recognition of Neighborhood Watch Captains

CIRCUMSTANCES:

The Fort Bragg Police Department would like to recognize the following members of the Fort Bragg Neighborhood Watch. Ron and Judy Valadao, Pepper and Elaine Ball, Sarita Colberg, Sean Patrick, Bob and Kathy Silva, Brenda Salinin, Derek Hoyle, Anne Moffett, Jay Rosenquist, Dawn Ferreira, Tim Powell, Jean Stubenrauch, Vicky Lowe, Madeleine Melo, Jennie Lilliard, Eric and Gina Cline, and Myrl Hammer.

They are recognized not only because they are members of Neighborhood Watch, but because they have volunteered to take on the additional role and responsibilities of a Neighborhood Watch block captain. Their duties include but are not limited to:

- 1) Developing a neighborhood communication system to distribute vital information pertaining to criminal activity and other neighborhood concerns.
- 2) Developing a contact list and telephone tree in case of emergency or natural disaster.
- 3) Arranging meetings for members within their neighborhoods.
- 4) Being a liaison between the Police Department and the citizens in their neighborhoods.

These Block Captains are vital to the success of the Fort Bragg Neighborhood Watch program and the Police Department would like to recognize them and thank them for their service to our community.

Anyone who is interested in becoming involved in Neighborhood Watch is asked to contact Judy Valadao at fortbraggneighborhoodwatch@gmail.com
