CIRCUMSTANCES:

On May 1, 2018, Officers of the Fort Bragg Police Department responded to a report of a vandalism which had occurred in the 300 block of Maple Street. During the course of the investigation, Officers identified evidence indicating that Gabriel Monday assaulted Dennis Day in an attempt to deter Day from participating in the criminal prosecution process related to another investigation. During the altercation, Monday was accompanied by Mauricio Delgado and a juvenile suspect (both documented criminal street gang members). The juvenile suspect brandished a knife during the incident and vandalized Day's car before fleeing the scene.

At approximately 1:23p.m., Officers located Gabriel Monday driving in the 800 block of S. Main Street. Officers conducted a traffic enforcement stop and Monday was placed under arrest prior to his vehicle being stored. During the course of Monday's arrest, Officers identified additional evidence indicating that Monday is a member of a criminal street gang. Monday was transported to the Mendocino County Jail and booked on the above charges.

At approximately 7:30p.m., Officers received an anonymous report of several suspected criminal street gang members entering Coast Cinemas. The anonymous report including information that the juvenile suspect involved in the earlier assault and vandalism was present at the location. Officers located the juvenile suspect in this case and he was arrested and transported to Juvenile Hall.

At approximately 7:53p.m., Officers located and arrested Mauricio Delgado at 112 Dick Williams Way. Delgado was transported to Mendocino County Jail on the above charges, and charges stemming from a separate criminal investigation earlier in the week.
