CLAIM FOR VETERAN'S EXEMPTION FROM LICENSE FEES

California State law exempts certain qualifying veterans from paying business license fees. The business license is still required but fees are waived if the veteran meets the following qualifications:

- An honorable discharged veteran of the United States military
- The sole owner of the business. (Corporations or partnerships are not exempt.)
- Does not sell alcoholic beverages.

I request exemption from the payment of business license fees as a qualifying veteran. I affirm under perjury that:

1. I am an honorably discharged veteran of the United States military. (A copy of my DD-214 or similar documentation is attached.)
2. I am the sole owner of the business. (Married couple ownership is allowed.)
3. My business does not sell alcoholic beverages.
